HAD A STREET FAIR

NORMAL HALLOWEEN SOCIAL ENTERTAINED FIVE HUNDRED.

"PAY SHOWS" WERE FREE

A Great Time at State School Which Closed With Toasted Marshmallows and a Huge Bonfire.

The success of the Halloween festivities at the Normal Tuesday night was even beyond the hopes of the committee in charge. At the second landing of the main entrance six "old" witches, dressed in black cloaks, with long peaked hats, served cider from a caldron which was concealed in a corn shock. The witches were Misses Christy, Bainum, Kildow, Keeler, Hunt and Todd. As the guests proceeded into the hall of the second floor they began to realize that they were attending a Halloween street fair. The hall was arched with red and white pennants for the street fair effect, and the walls were paneled with black cats and black bats, which carried out the weird effect of Halloween. The halls and entrance were also very tastefully decorated with shocks of corn and pumpkins. The guests then proceeded to the library, where the main part of the street fair took place. The original idea of the committee was to present each person with enough money to see all of the pay attractions. The money was made of gun wads. But, not realizing how large the crowd was going to be, the money supply was soon exhausted, so all the attractions were thrown open free. In the library the following shows flourished: "Crystalline, the glass eater," in which Miss Palmer ate some rock candy which had all the appearance of glass. "The Human Head Without a Body" was under the direction of Miss Susan Ellison. The "suckers" viewed their image in a small hand mirror. Mr. Powell, a student in the Normal, made an excellent "Willie, the Fat Boy." Miss Bertha Smith was in charge. "The Dance of the Seven Veils" was very cleverly executed by a small doll. Miss Jennie Pugh, assisted by Miss Alpha Hinkle and Miss Lola Severe, was the manager. "The Tallest Woman on Earth," Miss Goldie Carmichael, was very tall. In fact, she was compelled to stoop to shake hands with the audience. Miss Minkus was the conductor. "Madam Celestine," Miss Lottie Perrin, gave pictures of one's future wife or husband or of your affinity. Miss Bertha Real also told fortunes by means of cards. Miss Cora Gehr "presented to the public for the first time" the "Ground Hog," with emphasis on the "ground," for it was a hunk of sausage moulded to represent a groundhog.

Professor Mutz's hippodrome, which was exhibited in the gymnasium, was a howling success. The company was composed of Professor Ray "Snake-eye" Miller, the tight rope artist; Dr. Dennis Parman, the strong man, and G. B. "Buck" Holmes, who dived from the balcony of the gymnasium "through sheer atmosphere" to a net below. Another feature attraction was the "Shoot the Chutes," which flourished until the car was demolished. This was generated by Miss Helen Lefler. All lovers of thoroughbred horses were more than delighted with the horse parade. Kirby Taylor, Lona Ferrin and Professor Charles Worley were awarded first, second and third prize respectively, the principal reason being that that was the order of their march in the parade. The judges were Professors Harrington, Cook and Colbert and Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Cook. The committee was very chummy, first because they were policemen's stars that rivaled even Halley's comet in size and brightness, and then, too, because they had acquired the services of so excellent a band. The band was under the direction of Professor LaRue Kemp. Her artists were Misses Neva Airy, Osenberger, Straussie Martin, Alice Martin, Mattie Dikes, Ferris and Peery, all of which were finished artists on the comb.

The indoor festivities were very fittingly closed by a little sketch in the auditorium, entitled "His Old Sweethearts," which were the reveries of a bachelor prior to his rapidly approaching marriage. Prof. H. P. Swinehart was the bachelor, and the subjects of his reveries were Misses Bilby, Benight, Mabel and Verda Miller, Wall, Yeaman, Cranor and Keeler. Miss Helen Ford was the bride. The stage was decorated with pennants and an immense American flag. After this last performance every one went to the campus, north of the building, where an immense bonfire was lighted and marshmallows were toasted. Instead of the usual cracker-jack and taffy which the crowds consume at a street fair, the committee placed several sacks of apples through the hall for those present to feast upon. The committee in charge, who worked faithfully to make the affair a success, were Misses Mae Corwin, Donna Sisson, Susan Ellison, Hettie Anthony and Professor C. D. Deibler.

SAMUEL B. COOK DEAD.

Former Maryville Resident Died in Kansas Last Sunday.

Samuel B. Cook, for many years a resident of Maryville, died Sunday, October 29, at his home, in Hiawatha, Kan. He left several relatives in Nodaway county, and will be kindly remembered by a large circle of friends. Mr. Cook was born in Ray county, this state, May 15, 1828, and at the time of his death was 73 years, 5 months and 14 days of age. He came with his parents to Maryville when 4 years old and resided here until about sixteen years ago, when he went to Leona, Kan. In April, 1909, after the death of his wife, he went to Hiawatha, where he remained until his death. In October, 1855, he married Miss Mary A. Harper of Guilford, and to this union eight children were born. Two of these died in infancy, and one, Mrs. J. B. Mercer, died about fifteen years ago at the age of 35. The remaining children are W. F. Cook of Hiawatha, Kan.; S. D. Cook of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; John A. Cook of Guilford, Mo.; Fred A. Cook of Hiawatha, Kan.; and Mrs. J. A. Harper of Leona, Kan. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. A. J. Broyles of Hopkins, and a brother, Jonathan H. Cook, who lives in McKinney, Texas. Funeral services were conducted at the Leona Christian church Monday last, conducted by the Rev. Jesse Bader of Atchison. All the surviving children except S. D. Cook were in attendance at the funeral. He was a faithful member of the Christian church for many years and was well and favorably known in this county.

E. F. GOLTRA ELECTED.

Succeeds Late Moses Wetmore as National Committeeman.

The Democratic state central committee at Kansas City Tuesday elected Edward F. Goltra of St. Louis national committeeman from Missouri to succeed Moses Wetmore, deceased. The only other candidate was Ewing Mitchell of Springfield.

The committee refused to take up the matter of a state primary to settle the presidential controversy between the friends of ex-Governor Folk and Speaker Champ Clark.

Mr. Goltra, the new committeeman, was born in Jacksonville, Ill., forty-nine years ago and attended Illinois college, where William J. Bryan was a fellow student. Later Mr. Goltra was a student at Williston seminary in Massachusetts. In 1887 he graduated from Princeton.

Mr. Goltra is vice-president of the Tennessee Central railroad, and he is heavily interested in other railroads and in mines. He is a director of a trust company in St. Louis and a member of the University and Country clubs of that city. He also belongs to the Lawyers, the Calumet and the New York Yacht clubs in New York, and the University club in Chicago.

WILL GIVE PACKAGE SERVICE.

Wells-Fargo Company Making Improvements in Local Service.

The Wells-Fargo Express company promises to give Maryville a service better than has been provided here, and one that is badly needed. They have provided a fine new delivery outfit and calls will be made for packages going out and prompt delivery will be made of in-coming packages.

Fine new furniture has been provided for the new office of the company and it now has quarters of which Agent Staples and his assistants are very proud. Superintendent J. M. Crawford of St. Louis and Route Agent George W. Tucker of Moberly were here Tuesday looking over the situation and arranging for the installation of the new service.

MANITOU AT HOME

VALUABLE MINERAL PROPERTIES OF WELL JUST DEMONSTRATED.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS MADE

Police Judge Johnson Has Well on His Place That is Strongly Impregnated With Minerals.

Judge W. L. Johnson has a well at his residence, on East First street, that has not been in use for drinking purposes because of a peculiar taste. It was noticed, however, that when stock became accustomed to it they became very fond of it. Judge Johnson thought perhaps the well might have something in it that affected the taste of the water, so he had it cleaned out last year and again this year, but nothing was found.

For some time his daughter, Dr. Gertrude DuVall, harbored the idea that this well might contain medicinal properties, and a few days ago she sent a sample of the water to Dr. Walter Cross, the well known chemist of Kansas City, for analysis. Dr. Cross states that the water is strongly saturated with iron, manganese and other beneficial properties, and it is very similar to the famous iron springs at Manitou, Col. The taste, however, is more palatable than the Colorado waters.

When the well was cleaned out last year an attempt was made to dip it dry, but this was found impossible, as the flow is strong and the water cold. It stands about ten feet.

Judge Johnson has not determined what he will do toward developing it, if anything, but will investigate further and probably submit the water to other authorities before deciding what course he will pursue.

MRS. JESTER'S WILL FILED.

Howard McCommon Appointed to Carry Out Last Wishes of Deceased.

The will of Mrs. Bettie Jester, who recently died at the home of her daughter, in Claremore, Okla., was filed in the probate court Tuesday. Howard McCommon, a son-in-law, was appointed executor, according to the expressed wishes of the deceased.

Three of the children, Mrs. Laura McCommon, Maryville; John B. Jester, Marshall; and Mrs. Lula Boyd of Claremore, Okla., are each given $100 by the terms of the will. The remainder of the estate is divided as follows among the children:

Mrs. Laura McCommon, daughter, one-seventh; Mrs. Nannie Lotspeich, Butler, Mo.; daughter, one-seventh; Mrs. Bettie Mell, Marshall, Mo., daughter, one-seventh; Mrs. Olive O'Dell, Napton, Mo., daughter, one-seventh; Blanche Alfree and Earl Jester, grandchildren, daughter and son of James A. Jester, deceased, one-fourteenth each. The instrument was drawn up September 7, 1911, and was witnessed by Dr. J. B. Morrison and James F. Colby. Mrs. Jester was 85 years of age.

Mrs. Rebecca Watson went to Atchison, Kan., Wednesday morning.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Wilcox Rebekah Sochil.

The Rebekah lodge of Wilcox will give a "backward" social Friday evening at their hall in Wilcox. Pumpkin pie and sweet cider will be served. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged.

Hallowe'en Domino.

Miss Lavisa Swinford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Swinford of East Second street, gave a progressive Hallowe'en domino party Tuesday evening to a number of her young friends. The tally cards were in the form and color of autumn leaves, and after the games a Hallowe'en lunch was served by Mrs. Swinford, assisted by Misses Anna and Nellie Halasy. At 9 o'clock, chaperoned by Mrs. O. L. Ball, the little hostess and her guests went out for an hour's stroll, and it is safe to say that they performed some Hallowe'en stunts on the side. The company included Lavisa Swinford, Marie Wright, Georgia Evans, Maud and Martha Helpely, Wilma Ball, Mary Angell, Nellie and Anna Halasy, Ethel Swinford, Juanita Neal, Alice Donahue.

Little Sisters Entertained.

Genevieve and Mary Todd, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd, entertained with a Hallowe'en party Tuesday afternoon. Assisting them were Margaret Louise Hosmer and Dorothy Eaton, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hosmer and Mr. and Mrs. George Eaton. The rooms had been darkened and were lighted only by jack-o'-lanterns, with decorations of Hallowe'en time. Punch was served the guest on their arrival by Mrs. George Eaton, Mrs. J. D. Frank and Miss Vera Tilton. A fish pond yielded Hallowe'en souvenirs to all who tried their luck, and in the contest to pin the tail on the donkey while blindfolded, Mabel Raines was the winner. A Hallowe'en lunch was served to the guests who were Margaret Louise Hosmer, Dorothy Eaton, Annette Stiwalt, Audrey Stiwalt, Ethel Martha Condon, Ned Colbert, Eva Margaret Frank, Mayme Grems, Evelyn, Mabel and Laura Margaret Raines, Esther Roseberry, Virginia Belle Dean, Robert Westfall, Marvin Ford Westfall and J. D. Frank, Jr.

Their Theme Was Missouri.

The M. I. Circle met with Mrs. B. C. Halley Tuesday afternoon. There were nineteen members present, and all took some part in the discussion of some phase of Missouri history. Devotions were led by Mrs. Omar Caterson. The roll call was responded to with names and facts about all of Missouri's governors. The song "Missouri," the words of which were written by Homer Martien Cook and the music by Director P. O. Landon of the Maryville Conservatory of Music, was sung by the Circle at the close of the meeting, with Miss Eva Spickerman at the piano. Missouri's praises were sounded in song, toast history and story, and it was one of the most instructive meetings that has been held by the Circle. Mrs. I. W. Nixon gave a history of Missouri; Mrs. Charles McNeal spoke of Missouri's natural resources and Mrs. M. J. Honnold told of Missouri's advantages over other states. As a result of the discussion every member present is more than proud she is a resident of Missouri, whether it is her state by adoption or her native state. Mrs. C. B. Roberts was critic. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Eugene Ogden, a new member of the Circle, at her home, one mile south of town.

Conservatory Recital.

The State Normal Quartet gave a number at the Conservatory recital Monday evening, which was the initial recital for the fall term. Piano numbers were given as follows: Duet by Krogman, Laura Curtman and Wilda Keefe; Soldier's March by Landon; Ruth Miller; Song Without Words by Walseer, Virgil Rathbun; Mazurka by Krogman, Irvin Harris, March Grosques by Sinding, Alice Barr; Nocturne in F by Schumann, Eleanor Smith; Humoresque by Dvorak, Geneva Willey; March by Engelmann, Lucile Wright; Waltz by Chopin, Valda Vance.

Gave Hallowe'en Party.

Mrs. G. A. Pickens gave a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening at the family home, in West Terrace Place, the guests including the friends of her son, Master Paul Pickens. The house was decorated in autumn leaves and redwax and lighted by jack-o'-lanterns that were placed over the acetylene light globes. The guests were received by a ghost, but his cold, silent reception did not daunt them, as they knew no harm would befall them at the Pickens house. The evening was spent in playing Hallowe'en games and eating apples and doughnuts suspended from a string, and the spirit of fun prevailed. Mrs. Pickens served sweet cider, doughnuts, apples, nut fudge and marshmallows, when the boys went out tick-tacking to end the Hallowe'en properly. Those in the party were Byron and John Costello, Paul Miller, B. E. Condon, Forrest and Will Hutchison, James and Chilton Robinson, Norton Harrel, Toel Lorraine, Paul and Vern Pickens.

MEANS MUCH TO ST. JOSEPH.

Finding of Oil or Gas Here Would Benefit Our Neighbor.

For a long time many Nodaway county people have believed that oil and gas really might be found there, and during the last few days this belief has taken a firm root. A few weeks ago the representative of an eastern syndicate appeared, and after a quiet investigation proceeded to get leases on as much land as possible. So far he has procured rights to about 25,000 acres, and hopes within a short time to swell this to 30,000 acres. In the meantime plans have been laid to begin the work of boring at once.

We hope the prospectors will find what they are after, and in paying quantities. Oil and gas in Nodaway county would mean practically as much to St. Joseph as it would to that community; but even if it didn't the prosperity of our neighbor would be as keenly to our liking as our own prosperity.—St. Joseph News-Press.

To Attend Renfro Funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ditto and Mrs. Ditto's sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Hiatt of Pickering, went to Hopkins Wednesday noon to attend the funeral services of Martin Renfro, who was accidentally killed while working in his cornfield Tuesday noon. Mr. Renfro is Mrs. Ditto's uncle.

Bought Present for Wife.

Robert Wallace, the oil prospect promoter in this city, bought a Kranich-Bach piano player of the Field-Lippman Piano company Monday for Mrs. Wallace, which was sent to their home in Chelsea, Okla., Wednesday.

Have Guests From Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Edwards of Omaha arrived in Maryville Wednesday morning and are the guests of Mrs. Edwards' sisters, Mrs. L. P. Colvin, Mrs. L. E. Carpenter and Miss Morna Lamar.

Mrs. Edward Higgs and children, who have been visiting her father, Glover Kelley and family, went to Nebraska City, Neb., to make their home.

Ira O. Kelley of the Swinford Ridge neighborhood returned Monday night from South Dakota, where he has been for a few days visiting a brother.

B. R. Ruth, who has been clerking at the Anderson clothing store, has resigned his position and returned to his home at Oakland, Ia.

PLENTY OF GAME

QUAIL SEASON OPENED IN THIS STATE WEDNESDAY.

FINE SPORT FOR HUNTERS

Local Nimrods Getting Guns and Ammunition in Shape—Ozark Woods Full of Turkeys.

The quail season opened Wednesday, November 1st, and local nimrods are busy today brushing up their guns and replenishing their ammunition. Quail are reported to be more plentiful this year than for several years past. The weather last spring was warm and dry and eggs hatched well and the young birds suffered but little.

Squirrels and rabbits are also reported plentiful, and from down in the Ozarks comes the word that the woods are full of wild turkey. Duck hunters along the Missouri river have been having a world of sport recently.

The best duck hunting comes on the wane of a cold wave. While the weather is cold and stormy the ducks keep on the wing, night and day. But when it begins to turn warm the ducks hunt around for a pond, river or slough where there is plenty of lily root, or small fish, or, better still, a little wild rice, for food, and prepare to establish winter quarters. Here they will stay until the next cold snap swoops down on them and again sends them winging toward the warm southern bayous. Between these cold spells is the real hunter's paradise, for then the ducks do not fly far and can be relied upon to stay in certain localities most of the time.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.

John W. Haegan Died at St. Francis Hospital Tuesday Morning.

John W. Haegan, an old and honored resident of Maryville for forty years, died at Francis hospital Tuesday evening, where he had been taken from his home, north of the city, for special treatment several days previous to his death. He had been in ill health for several weeks, and his death was due to the general weaknesses of old age, as he had no disease.

The time for the funeral services have not yet been arranged, as a son from Montana will come, but cannot reach Maryville before some time Friday. It is probable that the services will be held Saturday morning. They will be held in St. Mary's church, conducted by Rev. Father Anselm.

Mr. Haegan was 84 years old the 2nd day of last June. He had been a resident of Nodaway county for over forty years and was counted among the county's successful and honored farmers. He is survived by four sons and four daughters: Henry Haegan of Omaha, Peter Haegan and John Haegan of Trenton, Neb.; Frank Haegan of Garfield, Mont.; Mrs. Nic Storm, Mrs. Martin Gross and Miss Kate Haegan of Maryville, and Mrs. Albert Honey of Colorado Springs, Col.

EXTERMINATED 525 RATS.

Chillicothe Farmer Tests Theory of Rats Carrying Cholera.

Andrew Jackson Walker, a farmer living near Chillicothe, decided Tuesday to rid his farm of rats. Summoning his neighbors he started a crusade on the rodents, and during the day 525 rats were killed on the Walker premises. Dogs, and pitchforks and clubs were used. The dead rats were piled on a log heap with five hogs that had died from cholera and were cremated. It is thought that rats carry hog cholera just as they are supposed to spread Asiatic cholera, and the rat killing was to test the theory of the spread of the disease by rats.

PRESIDENT ON PARADE.

"I confess that I am not reconciled to the idea of a chief magistrate parading himself through the several states as an object of public gaze and in quest of an applause which, to be valuable, should be purely voluntary."

Thus wrote Thomas Jefferson. It is instructive and refreshing to turn back, now and then, to the teachings of the fathers of the republic. And in none of such teachings will be found more wisdom and inspiration than in some of the writings of Jefferson.

The idea of a chief magistrate parading himself throughout the several states originated early in our history. But Mr. Jefferson's criticism represented well the popular sentiment on the subject down to later times.

Practical illustration of the idea has reached its climax in the case of Mr. Taft.

He has been, and remains for several days more, "an object of public gaze and in quest of an applause which, to be valuable, should be purely voluntary." He has called out just such crowds as gather in the streets for "circus day" in a country town.

Everybody knows that his trip is in the nature of a politician's scheme for securing support. Meantime, the public business in the nation's capital is delayed, while no possible public benefit is secured as result of the president "parading himself throughout the several states."—Chicago Daily Journal.

PICK ODD NOOKS FOR NESTS

Swallows Are Cunning Builders But Sometimes Select Precarious Sites for Homes.

Swallows are diligent and cunning builders of nests, but they are not always wise in their choice of a locality. In proof of this a couple of birds last year chose a secluded corner among the rafters of my barn and managed to hatch and rear their young successfully.

This year a couple, probably the same, repaired the nest and laid their eggs. But one morning both birds were found lying dead on the floor, the windows having been closed and the door locked by a too careful servant. A favorite place for a swallow to build its nest is the upper corner of a window.

This situation is to say the least precarious, as an energetic housemaid has merely unintentionally or otherwise to draw down the sash and the nest is at once in ruins. I remember once quite unintentionally acting the part of the energetic housemaid. I drew down the sash and managed just in time to save the structure from falling to pieces.

Supporting it with my hands, I told one of my boys to bring his schoolbag, and having fastened it securely to the window, deposited therein the remains of the nest and the young family of birds.

The parents were shy at first, but on closer investigation, having satisfied themselves that their little ones were still alive, they accommodated themselves to the situation and brought up their family in the usual way, sending them at length into the world doubtless all the wiser for their nurture in this abode of learning. A similar misfortune happened this summer to a swallow's nest in the window of a cottage in the Cheviot hills.

This time the nest was almost totally destroyed, but help came from a probably overlooked quarter. The dismayed cries of the feathered builders attracted their companions, who flocked around in large number and rendered every assistance in repairing the damage.—The Scotsman.

BROWNING WAS NOT A SNOB

When a Cook Came to See Some Pictures He Offered Her His Arm.

A trivial anecdote occurs to me which has nothing to do with the "Countesses" who were supposed to absorb Mr. Browning overmuch. It appeared that on one occasion Mr. Browning's son had hired a room in a neighboring house in which to exhibit his pictures. In the temporary absence of the artist, Mr. Browning was doing the honors, the room being half filled with fashionable friends. Mr. Browning was standing near the door when a visitor, unannounced, made her appearance; he immediately shook hands with the stranger, or tried to do so, when she exclaimed: "Oh, I beg your pardon, sir, I'm the cook. Mr. Barrett asked me to come and see his pictures." "And I am very glad to see you," said Mr. Browning, with ready courtesy. "Take my arm and I will show you around." —Mrs. Andrews Crosslee, "Red Letter Days of My Life."

Crushed by a Caddie.

"It is not always safe to fish for compliments," says a Washington man, who travels quite a bit, "and I recently learned a lesson in this regard from a caddie attached to a golf club near this town.

"I was going round the links one afternoon and making a dreadful exhibition of myself. I did not, however, know that my caddie was fully aware of this, as he seemed so blissfully unconscious that anything was wrong. He was a nice, freckled little Irishman, and I took quite a fancy to him, especially as never a hint came from him that I was doing badly. At the end of the round, in the hope of a 'jolly' from the lad, I ventured to observe:

"I've been traveling for the last two months, and am dreadfully out of practice. That's why I'm in such bad form today."

"To which the caddie calmly replied: 'Oh, then ye've played before, sir!'"

For Those Who Hear Not.

The hallboy had fairly split his throat shouting directions to deaf persons who had called to see Mr. Schwartz. Mr. Schwartz lived in the fourth floor rear, right-hand apartment, through the long hall and up the back stairs. It took a good deal of shouting to make some folks understand that.

"I never saw so many deaf people in my life," said the boy. "What on earth are they all running up to Schwartz's for?"

"Mr. Schwartz has advertised a deaf man's phonograph for sale," said a neighbor. "He is very hard of hearing. The phonograph was made especially for him. It has an unusually loud tone. Nobody but the hard-of-hearing can live with such entertainment. Mr. Schwartz, to save trouble, has advertised for a deaf purchaser."

Her Mind Relieved.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Forkins, "what is a jackpot?"

"Why—er—a jackpot is a general contribution for purposes of charitable donation."

"Oh! Do you know I was afraid it had something to do with the wickedness of politics!"

RECEIVERSHIP DENIED.

Judge Ellison Refused Application of Mrs. Bettie M. Payne.

Arguments on an application for receivership were heard by Judge Ellison Wednesday afternoon in the case of James B. Payne vs. Bettie M. Payne of Holt county. The matter has been in the courts for some time in one form or another. A suit was first brought for divorce by Mr. Payne against his wife, and some sort of a settlement was finally reached as to the division of the property, which included an option by the terms of which Payne was privileged to pay certain amounts in cash instead of property, within a limit of ten days. A question has now arisen as to whether he neglected to avail himself of the option within the time, and an application has been filed for a receivership of all his property by Mrs. Payne.

Payne is a rich retired farmer of Holt county and is getting old. His wife was very much younger than himself, and their married life was short and turbulent. Mrs. Payne is represented by Attorney Frank Petree of Oregon and Mr. Payne is represented by R. B. Bridgemon of Oregon and Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison of this city.

The court denied the application and refused to appoint a receiver.

Shipped Jersey Cattle.

Thomas Wiles made another shipment of Jersey cows to Dr. John Lomax of St. Joseph Wednesday. Dr. Lomax has a fine farm west of St. Joseph and is putting a fine herd of Jersey cattle there. He has bought nine head of cows from Mr. Wiles' herd.

Went Home From Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Steiger returned to their home in Ravenwood Wednesday. Mr. Steiger has been a patient at St. Francis hospital for several weeks, where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Brought to Hospital.

Howard McLaren of Elmo was brought to St. Francis hospital Tuesday night by Dr. R. E. Ferguson of that place for treatment.

Miss Bessie Stewart, a State Normal student, is dangerously ill at St. Francis hospital of typhoid fever. Her home is at Fairfax, and she is a niece of Mrs. Charles Jensen and Mrs. Henry H. Martin of this city.

Mrs. Joseph McKnight and little daughter arrived in the city Tuesday to visit Mrs. Charles Baker, living north of the city.

John Ferritor returned to his home in Clyde Tuesday from a week's visit in this city with E. L. Ferritor and family.

Mrs. Frank McMacken of Burlington Junction was in the city shopping Tuesday.

Mrs. Edward Forsyth went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. W. H. England.

That Explains.

"I have a dog and a hen which are fast friends. Isn't that queer?"

"I don't think so—merely natural affinity."

"In what way?"

"I believe your hen and your dog are both setters."

His Fiftieth Birthday.

Mrs. Alfred Allen, colored, entertained with a morning party Friday to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of her husband, at their home, on Grand avenue. The hours were from 8:30 to 11:30. Lunch was served at 10:30 o'clock. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. John Gooden, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Page, Miss Abbie Arnold, Mr. John McGeehee, Mr. Thomas Jackson, Miss Belle Palmer, Mr. Ozle Schoonen, Prof. A. A. Keene, Mr. Roland Johnson. Mr. Allen received quite a number of nice presents.

Installing a New Boiler.

A new 300 horsepower boiler is being installed in the Normal heating plant. The MacMahon company of Kansas City has the matter in charge, and the boiler is expected to be in operating condition in time for cold weather. It will be a companion to the one already in, it having been found that the one is not equal to the demands in severe weather.

Fined in Justice Court.

Samuel Phillips of Barnard was fined Monday in a justice court at Barnard on the charge of allowing infected hogs to run at large, and also for failure to dispose of the carcasses of dead hogs, as provided by law. The fine on the first charge was $10 and costs and on the second $1 and costs.

Showing Loyalty.

Of course, one rather admires the people who peek around the exchange editors' desk looking for the paper from the "old home town," but it strikes us that native loyalty would be better shown by sending a $1 bill to the editor in the old home town. He might be able to use it.—Kansas City Star.

TRY THIS

OVERNIGHT CURE FOR COLD IN HEAD OR CHEST.

It is Curing Thousands Daily, and Saves Time and Money.

Get a bowl three-quarters full of boiling water, and a towel.

Pour into the water a scant teaspoonful of Hyomel (pronounce High-o-me).

Put your head over the bowl and cover head and bowl with towel.

Breathe the vapor that arises for a few minutes, and presto! your head is as clear as a bell, and the tightness in the chest is gone.

It's a pleasant cure. You'll enjoy breathing Hyomel. You'll feel at once its soothing, healing and beneficial effects as it passes over the inflamed and irritated membrane. 50 cents a bottle, at druggists everywhere. Ask the Orear-Henry Drug Co. for extra bottle Hyomel Inhalant.

FRESH OYSTERS

Direct from the coast. They are large enough to fry, and don't you know a New York Oyster is lighter in color and a finer flavor than Baltimore stock. They come to us in five-gallon cans SEALED. No ice ever put in the Oysters. Compare our Oysters with others and you can see the difference. We sell the solid meat. NO WATER. A trial will convince you we are right on the Oyster question.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are 50, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

Mrs. W. W. Groves of St. Paul, Miss., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lemon of East Jenkins street the past two weeks, left for her home Tuesday.

IT'S ALWAYS BAD.

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and Maryville People Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes. Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill?

If you don't, some Maryville people do.

Read a case of it:

J. A. Murphy, East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I suffered considerably from kidney and bladder trouble. In the morning upon arising my back was weak and stiff and there was a dull ache in my loins which at times handicapped me in doing my work. Whenever I caught cold it settled in my kidneys, and at such times the kidney secretions became unnatural. I was run down in health when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply at Charles A. Love's drug store. Soon after beginning their use I found relief, and I am now free from kidney trouble. I occasionally take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, finding that they serve to keep my kidneys in a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mrs. E. L. Ferritor and children went to Stanberry Tuesday to attend the funeral of the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ferritor, a nephew of Mr. Ferritor.

KOCH PHARMACY

Guarantees Parisian Sage for Falling Hair and Dandruff.

We want you to know that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle and carton of Parisian Sage.

We want you to know this for your own protection, for there are many imitations, and it is an easy matter to get the spurious article.

You can always get the genuine Parisian Sage at the Koch Pharmacy for only 50 cents a bottle. They will not deceive you.

Parisian Sage is rigidly guaranteed for dandruff, falling hair and scalp itch.

It is a most delightful and invigorating hair dressing that puts life and brilliance into the hair and causes it to grow if the hair root be no dead.

It's the tonic you will use always if you use it once.

ASKS PERMIT FOR BIG NOTE ISSUE

Orient Railroad Applies to Kansas Utilities Commission.

FRENCH BANKERS TO TAKE ALL

Company Proposes to Issue $19,300,000 in Gold Notes to Be Used for Further Extensions, Largely in Mexico.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 1.—Permission to issue gold notes to the amount of 100,000,000 francs—equal to $19,300,000—has been asked of the Kansas utilities commission by the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railroad through the road's general attorney, John Eaton.

Arthur E. Stilwell of Kansas City, Mo., is president of the Orient.

The notes will be purchased by a syndicate of French bankers, negotiations having been completed by President Stilwell several months ago.

The notes, providing permission is granted, will be dated 1911 and at the end of 20 years—1931—will be convertible into stock in the railroad, according to the petition filed here.

The money to be obtained through the sale of the notes will be used in construction work, the larger part in Mexico.

The Orient now has a line in operation from Wichita, Kan., to San Angelo, Tex., a distance of 510 miles. The line from Wichita to Emporia is graded and part of the bridges are in place. From San Angelo southwest, the road has nearly been completed as far as Fort Stockton, Tex., the objective point being Topolobampo, in the state of Sinaloa, Mexico, on the Gulf of California. Between Fort Stockton and Topolobampo there is a line in operation from Chihuahua, 90 miles east and also a stretch of 73 miles from Topolobampo to Hornillos.

Another branch from San Angelo to Del Rio, Tex., is under construction. The ultimate terminal of this branch will be Mexico City.

The line from Kansas City to Emporia will be under construction soon. Immediately upon the filing of the petition the public utilities commission took it under advisement. The members said that, although the final decision would not be given for several days, the Orient undoubtedly would be granted the permit.

North Dakota Educators Convene.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 1.—Several hundred members of the North Dakota Educational association were present today when the twenty-fifth annual meeting opened in the Masonic temple. Mayor Lowell welcomed them cordially and Prof. J. E. Kennedy of the state university responded. President Neil C. Macdonald of Valley City then delivered his address, and Supt. W. E. Hoover of the Fargo schools followed with a paper on "Educational Progress of the Year." The section meetings began this morning with sessions of the departments of rural education, industrial education, history, civics and social science and musical education. Tonight Ernest Thompson-Seton will lecture.

New Barges Nearly Ready.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 1.—The first of six steel barges being built for use in the government improvement work on the Missouri river east of Kansas City is being completed at the levee here. Work on the others is proceeding rapidly and all the barges will be in service next spring. The barges probably will be ready to leave here before December 1.

Destruction of Rats.

An East Africa publication contains a description of a method of destroying rats, followed in Java, in which carbon bisulphide in employed. In carrying out the method a small quantity, usually about half a teaspoonful of the carbon bisulphide is poured into the rat hole and after waiting a few moments to let the liquid evaporate, the mixture of air and vapor is lighted, a small explosion resulting and filling the hole with poisonous gas, killing the rats instantly. Such a process practiced openly might be objectionable under some circumstances because of danger from fire resulting from the explosion and a field for invention appears to offer itself to provide some form of fire-proof gun or explosion chamber suitably formed to be inserted in the mouth of the rat hole and adapted to enclose the explosion and discharge the resulting noxious gas into the hole.—Scientific American

REBELS RECAPTURE HANKOW

TWO IMPERIAL REGIMENTS SURRENDERED.

Manchu Rule in Ended, Even Though the Dynasty Survives—Rebels Distrust Throne.

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—A dispatch reporting the recapture of Hankow by the rebels has been received here from Shanghai by the Chinese Free Press.

According to the message the rebel army from Han Yen moved against the imperial forces and surrounded the city, forcing them to withdraw with the loss of two regiments which surrendered. Four field cannons were among the spoils of the fight.

Pekin, China, Nov. 1.—The state of terror which has taken possession of the entire imperial court was further shown by a long list of edicts supplementing former remarkable proclamation and offering further concessions of the most radical character.

The late edicts indicate that even though the dynasty survives, Manchu rule is at an end. The transfer even of the cabinet offices to native Chinese is ordered, and the throne swears that "hereafter Manchus and Chinese shall be regarded equally," meaning that the elaborate system of Manchu pensions which are now paid to practically every member of the race will be discontinued and the Manchus left to earn a living by their own enterprise.

The revolutionists are unimpressed by the flood of edicts from the emperor. They declare that the dynasty's surrender has come too late. Moreover, they do not trust the throne, regarding their present position as too strong for yielding to promises which they feel are insincere.

MORE RAILWAY MEN MAY STRIKE

Four Union Presidents Called to Chicago to Discuss Action Against Rock Island.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A call to the international presidents of the four other interested unions to meet in Chicago to discuss the advisability of a strike on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, was issued by James W. Kline, international president of the railway blacksmiths. The officials invited are J. A. Franklin of the boilermakers, Michael O'Sullivan of the sheet metal workers and Martin Ryan of the carmen, all of whom are in Kansas City, and James O'Connell of the machinists, now in Washington, D. C.

Officials of the Rock Island here denied that shopmen were taking a strike vote to force a wage increase. F. O. Melcher, vice president in charge of operation, said:

"We have been told indirectly that the men are taking a strike vote, but if that is true the question of wages is not involved."

Practically the only ungranted demand, he said, was for recognition of the system of federation, the lack of which caused the present strike of shopmen on the Harriman lines.

Rob a Hotel.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 1.—Three masked men held up and robbed the saloon and hotel of James Ringo in the eastern suburbs of the city after shooting and wounding the proprietor and beating his clerk into insensibility with the butt of shotguns. The robbers obtained about $40.

Seven Deaths Bring Arrest.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Louise Vermilya was arrested after the police found that the death of a policeman, a roomer at her home, was the seventh in recent years occurring under her roof. Mrs. Vermilya denies she is directly or indirectly responsible for any of the deaths.

Motor Regulations in Japan.

The regulations for motor traffic in Japan are neither long nor complicated. In case of a vehicle being in the street in an unsafe state it is the duty of the police to order it to stop or to allow it to proceed only after defects have been remedied.

Speed is limited to eight miles an hour, save in Yokohama, where the speed limit is six miles. Motors must not race. When cars meet they must slow down. When a motor meets a procession, a funeral or fire engines proceeding to a fire, it must pull up and take another route. Violation of these rules will be followed by fine or imprisonment. The regulations are not quite so Draconic as they appear, for the Japanese streets are very narrow and abound in picturesque and capricious turnings.

To Prolong Life of Needles.

The girl in a small apartment need no longer crowd her rooms with an ungainly sewing machine or else run up long seams by hand. There are fascinating handpower machines that fit into small boxes that can be put out of sight in a bureau drawer when not in use.

Keep on hand a supply of needles in all numbers, as it is most annoying when a needle breaks to have to send to the store before a seam can be finished. Needles can have their life prolonged by rubbing on a whetstone to a new point when blunted.

The finest needle can be easily threaded by holding a white paper on opposite side of the eye to make the hole more prominent.

FOUR ARE HELD FOR A MURDER

Poison Found in Oklahoma Woman's Stomach Leads to Arrests.

HUSBAND CHARGED WITH ARSON

Burned His Home to Get Insurance and Dead Wife Was to be Material Witness for Prosecution.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Nov. 1.—As a result of the finding of traces of poison in the stomach of Mrs. Ollie Crockett at Nowata, Ok., Mrs. Dora Gaines, Miss Maud Warner and Orville and George Crockett are under arrest here in connection with the case. The woman's husband, Roy Crockett, recently was brought back to Nowata from New Mexico on a charge of arson. Mrs. Crockett was a material witness against him.

Mrs. Crockett died mysteriously after having spent the night before in a rooming house with Mrs. Gaines and Miss Warner. A chemical analysis of the dead woman's stomach by experts showed death undoubtedly was caused by morphine, which was present in a large quantity. It was known she was not addicted to the use of the drug. The authorities so far have been unable to find any drug store in the vicinity of Nowata where the poison was bought.

A preliminary hearing of all four under arrest is in progress.

The two men arrested are brothers of the dead woman's husband, and the women are close friends of his, but not relatives.

Crockett is charged with having burned his home near Nowata several weeks ago to get the insurance. He left the state immediately after the fire. The insurance policy was made out to his wife and the money paid over to her.

The prosecution considered her an important witness on that account.

CHICAGO ROBBERS UP TO DATE

Backed Up Motor Truck to Store and Talked to Officer While Helping Themselves.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A motor truck has superceded the old-fashioned drays with which thieves used to haul away the loot of Chicago robberies. A modern pair of robbers backed a motor truck up to a building in the wholesale clothing district here and while the watchman passed them repeatedly visited the seventh floor and carried down silks valued at $1,500.

Chatting pleasantly with the policeman on the beat, the driver of the truck said the company was going to make deliveries at a suburb, which accounted for the early start. Neither policeman nor watchman suspected a robber until members of the firm arrived.

Boy Emperor Disappears.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 1.—The Chinese newspaper here received a dispatch from Peking stating that Lung Yu, the wife of the prince regent and mother of the boy emperor, had fled from the capital, taking with her the young emperor, Pu Wei, six years old, and that all trace of them had been lost. Prince Chun, made prince regent on the death of the dowager empress, Tsi An, and his brother, Kuang Hsu, the emperor, three years ago, still is in the capital.

Four Hurt in Wreck.

Atchison, Kan., Nov. 1.—Four men were injured when two extra work trains of the Missouri Pacific met head on near Nebraska City. The injured are Engineer George Munger of Falls City, Engineer B. S. Cummings, Conductor A. P. Kimball of Atchison and Fireman John Niel of Auburn, Neb. All save Niel were brought to the hospital at Atchison. All will recover.

Rev. Richeson Indicted.

Boston, Nov. 1.—The Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, Cambridge, was indicted on five counts charging murder in the first degree by the grand jury here for the alleged poisoning of his former sweetheart, Miss Avis W. Linnell of Hyannis.

Held Police Force at Bay.

Bartlesville, Ok., Nov. 1.—Jim McCoy, a Cherokee Indian, held the whole police force at bay here while he drove into Butler's store to get a match. With his six-shooter leveled at the policemen he again held the crowd while he backed the buggy out of the place and drove away.

Aviator Fell at Salina.

Salina, Kan., Nov. 1.—Glenn Martin, the aviator, fell with his airplane 150 feet here. Martin jumped a short distance and was uninjured, but the machine, except the engine, was wrecked.

Texas Tornado Came Late.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 1.—The town of Thelma, 18 miles south of San Antonio, was damaged and two persons injured and crops were destroyed by a tornado.

TO ASK HELP IN DIVORCE CASES

Kansas Judges Favor Appointment of Special Examiners.

MAY ASK LEGISLATURE TO ACT

Suggest Law Providing for Special Attorney to Act in Cases Where the Evidence is Incomplete.

Topeka, Nov. 1.—Kansas attorneys and especially judges of the district courts are taking a great deal of interest in the plan suggested by Judge Seehorn in Kansas City to have an examining attorney appear for the state in every divorce proceeding. At the next meeting of the Kansas Bar association the proposition will be discussed. The association may ask the Kansas legislature to provide for an examination in all divorce cases before the trial is held.

Judge Thomas C. Wilson of the first division of the Sedgewick county district court, both judges of the two divisions of the court in Shawnee county, Judge J. C. Ruppenthal of Hays and several other judges have expressed the belief that divorces are often granted unfairly simply because of a lack of information on the part of the judge.

In the last few years there have been several divorce cases appealed to the supreme court because the judge of the lower court refused to grant a divorce because he did not feel that all the proper information was at hand when he was asked to grant the decree. There have been numerous cases recently wherein a husband has appealed his case to the supreme court because some advantage had been taken of him and he did not feel that he had been given a square deal and that justice had been done when the decree was granted.

The judges, who have written letters to the attorney general and members of the supreme court, say that it is not at all necessary to have an examination in every case but in the larger cities of the state they say that at every term there are from one to a dozen divorces which the judges feel really should not be granted but they have no information which would permit them to refuse the decree. Judge Wilson has often refused to grant divorces unless attorneys appeared for both sides. Sometimes this is not a necessary precaution, but often it is taken because there are some appearances of chicanery on the part of the applicant. The evil does not appear often except in the larger cities. The judges believe that they should be permitted to name a special attorney to investigate divorce cases where the evidence is incomplete and have this attorney make a thorough investigation before the decree is granted.

STUDENTS VISIT PENITENTIARY

Missouri Sociology Class Shown Mines and Federal Prison at Leavenworth.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 1.—Forty-four members of the sociology class of William Jewell college at Liberty, Mo., visited the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing, the Soldiers' home and Fort Leavenworth. It was their annual visit.

At Lansing the visitors were met by Warden Coddling and several guards and were escorted through the institution and the coal mines. Warden Coddling addressed the young men in his private office on subjects pertaining to criminology and sociology.

Leaving Lansing the party went to the Soldiers' home and thence to Fort Leavenworth.

Citizens Freed a Prisoner.

Hobart, Ok., Nov. 1.—Trouble occurred at Mountain Park again when Joseph Hawkins, deputy sheriff, and Ray Clark, city marshal of Roosevelt, attempted to arrest Sam McNeal. McNeal was found in the rear of a store, where he was disarmed and handcuffed. Then armed citizens of Mountain Park forced the officers to free McNeal. He is implicated in the killing of Wyatt Staples when the Swanson county fight was at its height.

Flack Reward Posted.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 1.—The proclamation of the reward of $250 for John A. Flack which was issued by Gov. Stubbs confirmed the reports of two weeks ago, when the governor was asked if he would offer a reward. Men who believed they had him located asked for it. Flack absconded as cashier of the Abilene State Bank, wrecking the bank.

K. S. A. C. Student Wins Honor.

Manhattan, Kan., Nov. 1.—Karl Musser, a senior in the Kansas state agricultural college, won highest honors in Chicago in the judging of Holsteins in the National Dairy show. In winning the first place from contestants from ten or more agricultural colleges of this country and Canada, Musser received also a scholarship valued at $400.

HAD A STREET FAIR

NORMAL HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL ENTERTAINED FIVE HUNDRED.

"PAY SHOWS" WERE FREE

A Great Time at State School Which Closed With Toasted Marshmallows and a Huge Bonfire.

The success of the Halloween festivities at the Normal Tuesday night was even beyond the hopes of the committee in charge. At the second landing of the main entrance six "old" witches, dressed in black cloaks, with long peaked hats, served cider from a caldron which was concealed in a corn shock. The witches were Misses Christy, Bainum, Kildow, Keeler, Hunt and Todd. As the guests proceeded into the hall of the second floor they began to realize that they were attending a Halloween street fair. The hall was arched with red and white pennants for the street fair effect, and the walls were paneled with black cats and black bats, which carried out the weird effect of Halloween. The halls and entrance were also very tastefully decorated with shocks of corn and pumpkins. The guests then proceeded to the library, where the main part of the street fair took place. The original idea of the committee was to present each person with enough money to see all of the pay attractions. The money was made of gun wads. But, not realizing how large the crowd was going to be, the money supply was soon exhausted, so all the attractions were thrown open free. In the library the following shows flourished: "Crystalline, the glass eater," in which Miss Palmer ate some rock candy which had all the appearance of glass; "The Human Head Without a Body" was under the direction of Miss Susan Ellison. The "suckers" viewed their image in a small hand mirror. Mr. Powell, a student in the Normal, made an excellent "Willie, the Fat Boy." Miss Bertha Smith was in charge. "The Dance of the Seven Veils" was very cleverly executed by a small doll. Miss Jennie Pugh, assisted by Miss Alpha Hinkle and Miss Lola Severe, was the manager. "The Tallest Woman on Earth," Miss Goldie Carmichael, was very tall. In fact, she was compelled to stoop to shake hands with the audience. Miss Mingus was the conductor. "Madam Celestine," Miss Lottie Perrin, gave pictures of one's future wife or husband or of your affinity. Miss Bertha Beal also told fortunes by means of cards. Miss Cora Gehr "presented to the public for the first time" the "Ground Hog," with emphasis on the "ground," for it was a hunk of sausage moulded to represent a groundhog.

Professor Mutz's hippodrome, which was exhibited in the gymnasium, was a howling success. The company was composed of Professor Ray "Snake-eye" Miller, the tight rope artist; Dr. Dennis Parman, the strong man, and G. B. "Buck" Holmes, who dived from the balcony of the gymnasium "through sheer atmosphere" to a net below. Another feature attraction was the "Shoot the Chutes," which flourished until the car was demolished. This was generated by Miss Helen Lefler. All lovers of thoroughbred horses were more than delighted with the horse parade. Kirby Taylor, Lona Ferrin and Professor Charles Worley were awarded first, second and third prize respectively, the principal reason being that that was the order of their march in the parade. The judges were Professors Harrington, Cook and Colbert and Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Cook. The committee was very chummy, first because they were policemen's stars that rivaled even Halley's comet in size and brightness, and then, too, because they had acquired the services of so excellent a band. The band was under the direction of Professor LaRue Kemp. Her artists were Misses Neva Airy, Osenberger, Straussie Martin, Alice Martin, Mattie Dikes, Ferris and Peery, all of which were finished artists on the comb.

Ralph Marcell The Photographer South Main Street.

The indoor festivities were very fittingly closed by a little sketch in the auditorium, entitled "His Old Sweethearts," which were the reveries of a bachelor prior to his rapidly approaching marriage. Prof. H. P. Swinehart was the bachelor, and the subjects of his reveries were Misses Bilby, Bonight, Mabel and Verda Miller, Wall, Yeaman, Cranor and Keeler. Miss Helen Ford was the bride. The stage was decorated with pennants and an immense American flag. After this last performance every one went to the campus, north of the building, where an immense bonfire was lighted and marshmallows were toasted. Instead of the usual cracker-jack and taffy which the crowds consume at a street fair, the committee placed several sacks of apples through the hall for those present to feast upon. The committee in charge, who worked faithfully to make the affair a success, was Misses Mae Corwin, Donna Sisson, Susan Ellison, Hettie Anthony and Professor C. D. Deibler.

SAMUEL B. COOK DEAD.

Former Maryville Resident Died in Kansas Last Sunday.

Samuel B. Cook, for many years a resident of Maryville, died Sunday, October 29, at his home, in Hiawatha, Kan. He left several relatives in Nodaway county, and will be kindly remembered by a large circle of friends. Mr. Cook was born in Ray county, this state, May 15, 1838, and at the time of his death was 73 years, 5 months and 14 days of age. He came with his parents to Maryville when 4 years old and resided here until about sixteen years ago, when he went to Leona, Kan. In April, 1909, after the death of his wife, he went to Hiawatha, where he remained until his death. In October, 1855, he married Miss Mary A. Harper of Guilford, and to this union eight children were born. Two of these died in infancy, and one, Mrs. J. B. Mercer, died about fifteen years ago at the age of 35. The remaining children are W. F. Cook of Hiawatha, Kan.; S. D. Cook of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma; John A. Cook of Guilford, Mo.; Fred A. Cook of Hiawatha, Kan.; and Mrs. J. A. Harper of Leona, Kan. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. A. J. Broyles of Hopkins, and a brother, Jonathan H. Cook, who lives in McKinney, Texas. Funeral services were conducted at the Leona Christian church Monday last, conducted by the Rev. Jesse Baker of Atchison. All the surviving children except S. D. Cook were in attendance at the funeral. He was a faithful member of the Christian church for many years and was well and favorably known in this county.

E. F. GOLTRA ELECTED.

Succeeds Late Moses Wetmore as National Committeeman.

The Democratic state central committee at Kansas City Tuesday elected Edward F. Goltra of St. Louis national committeeman from Missouri to succeed Moses Wetmore, deceased. The only other candidate was Ewing Mitchell of Springfield.

The committee refused to take up the matter of a state primary to settle the presidential controversy between the friends of ex-Governor Folk and Speaker Champ Clark.

Mr. Goltra, the new committeeman, was born in Jacksonville, Ill., forty-nine years ago and attended Illinois college, where William J. Bryan was a fellow student. Later Mr. Goltra was a student at Williston seminary in Massachusetts. In 1887 he graduated from Princeton.

Mr. Goltra is vice-president of the Tennessee Central railroad, and he is heavily interested in other railroads and in mines. He is a director of a trust company in St. Louis and a member of the University and Country clubs of that city. He also belongs to the Lawyers, the Calumet and the New York Yacht clubs in New York, and the University club in Chicago.

WILL GIVE PACKAGE SERVICE.

Wells-Fargo Company Making Improvements in Local Service.

The Wells-Fargo Express company promises to give Maryville a service better than has been provided here, and one that is badly needed. They have provided a fine new delivery outfit and calls will be made for packages going out and prompt delivery will be made of in-coming packages.

Fine new furniture has been provided for the new office of the company and it now has quarters of which Agent Staples and his assistants are very proud. Superintendent J. M. Crawford of St. Louis and Route Agent George W. Tucker of Moberly were here Tuesday looking over the situation and arranging for the installation of the new service.

MANITOU AT HOME

VALUABLE MINERAL PROPERTIES OF WELL JUST DEMONSTRATED.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS MADE

Police Judge Johnson Has Well on His Place That is Strongly Impregnated With Minerals.

Judge W. L. Johnson has a well at his residence, on East First street, that has not been in use for drinking purposes because of a peculiar taste. It was noticed, however, that when stock became accustomed to it they became very fond of it. Judge Johnson thought perhaps the well might have something in it that affected the taste of the water, so he had it cleaned out last year and again this year, but nothing was found.

For some time his daughter, Dr. Gertrude DuVall, harbored the idea that this well might contain medicinal properties, and a few days ago she sent a sample of the water to Dr. Walter Cross, the well known chemist of Kansas City, for analysis. Dr. Cross states that the water is strongly saturated with iron, manganese and other beneficial properties, and it is very similar to the famous iron springs at Manitou, Col. The taste, however, is more palatable than the Colorado waters.

When the well was cleaned out last year an attempt was made to dip it dry, but this was found impossible, as the flow is strong and the water cold. It stands about ten feet.

Judge Johnson has not determined what he will do toward developing it, if anything, but will investigate further and probably submit the water to other authorities before deciding what course he will pursue.

MRS. JESTER'S WILL FILED.

Howard McCommon Appointed to Carry Out Last Wishes of Deceased.

The will of Mrs. Bettie Jester, who recently died at the home of her daughter, in Claremore, Okla., was filed in the probate court Tuesday. Howard McCommon, a son-in-law, was appointed executor, according to the expressed wishes of the deceased.

Three of the children, Mrs. Laura McCommon, Maryville; John B. Jester, Marshall, Mo.; and Mrs. Lula Boyd of Claremore, Okla., are each given $100 by the terms of the will. The remainder of the estate is divided as follows among the children:

Mrs. Laura McCommon, daughter, one-seventh; Mrs. Nannie Lotspeich, Butler, Mo.; daughter, one-seventh; Mrs. Bettie Mell, Marshall, Mo., daughter, one-seventh; Mrs. Olive O'Dell, Napton, Mo., daughter, one-seventh; Blanche Alfroe and Earl Jester, grandchildren, daughter and son of James A. Jester, deceased, one-fourteenth each. The instrument was drawn up September 7, 1911, and was witnessed by Dr. J. B. Morrison and James F. Colby. Mrs. Jester was 85 years of age.

Mrs. Rebecca Watson went to Atchison, Kan., Wednesday morning.

Hallowe'en Domino.

Miss Lavisa Swinford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Swinford of East Second street, gave a progressive Hallowe'en domino party Tuesday evening to a number of her young friends. The tally cards were in the form and color of autumn leaves, and after the games a Hallowe'en lunch was served by Mrs. Swinford, assisted by Misses Anna and Nellie Halasy. At 9 o'clock, chaperoned by Mrs. O. L. Ball, the little hostess and her guests went out for an hour's stroll, and it is safe to say that they performed some Hallowe'en stunts on the side. The company included Lavisa Swinford, Marie Wright, Georgia Evans, Maud and Martha Helpley, Wilma Ball, Mary Angel, Nellie and Anna Halasy, Ethel Swinford, Juanita Neal, Alice Donahue.

Little Sisters Entertained.

Genevieve and Mary Todd, the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Todd, entertained with a Hallowe'en party Tuesday afternoon. Assisting them were Margaret Louise Hosmer and Dorothy Eaton, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Hosmer and Mr. and Mrs. George Eaton. The rooms had been darkened and were lighted only by jack-o'-lanterns, with decorations of Hallowe'en time. Punch was served the guest on their arrival by Mrs. George Eaton, Mrs. J. D. Frank and Miss Vera Tilson. A fish pond yielded Hallowe'en souvenirs to all who tried their luck, and in the contest to pin the tail on the donkey while blindfolded, Mabel Raines was the winner. A Hallowe'en lunch was served to the guests who were Margaret Louise Hosmer, Dorothy Eaton, Annette Stiwalt, Audrey Stiwalt, Ethel Martha Condon, Ned Colbert, Eva Margaret Frank, Mayme Gremis, Evelyn, Mabel and Laura Margaret Raines, Esther Roseberry, Virginia Belle Dean, Robert Westfall, Marvin Ford Westfall and J. D. Frank, Jr.

Their Theme Was Missouri.

The M. I. Circle met with Mrs. B. C. Halley Tuesday afternoon. There were nineteen members present, and all took some part in the discussion of some phase of Missouri history. Devotions were led by Mrs. Omar Caterson. The roll call was responded to with names and facts about all of Missouri's governors. The song "Missouri," the words of which were written by Homer Martin Cook and the music by Director P. O. Landon of the Maryville Conservatory of Music, was sung by the Circle at the close of the meeting, with Miss Eva Spickerman at the piano. Missouri's praises were sounded in song, toast history and story, and it was one of the most instructive meetings that has been held by the Circle. Mrs. I. W. Nixon gave a history of Missouri; Mrs. Charles McNeal spoke of Missouri's natural resources and Mrs. M. J. Honnold told of Missouri's advantages over other states. As a result of the discussion every member present is more than proud she is a resident of Missouri, whether it is her state by adoption or her native state. Mrs. C. B. Roberts was critic. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Eugene Ogden, a new member of the Circle, at her home, one mile south of town.

Conservatory Recital.

The State Normal Quartet gave a number at the Conservatory recital Monday evening, which was the initial recital for the fall term. Piano numbers were given as follows: Duet by Krogman, Laura Curfman and Wilda Keefe; Soldier's March by Landon, Ruth Miller; Song Without Words by Walseer, Virgil Rathbun; Mazurka by Krogman, Irvin Harris, March Grotesque by Sinding, Alice Barr; Nocturne in F by Schumann, Eleanor Smith; Humoresque by Dvorak, Geneva Willey; March by Engelmann, Lucile Wright; Waltz by Chopin, Vajeda Vance.

Gave Hallowe'en Party.

Mrs. G. A. Pickens gave a Hallowe'en party Tuesday evening at the family home, in West Terrace Place, the guests including the friends of her son, Master Paul Pickens. The house was decorated in autumn leaves and redhaws and lighted by jack-o'-lanterns that were placed over the acetylene light globes. The guests were received by a ghost, but his cold, silent reception did not daunt them, as they knew no harm would befall them at the Pickens house. The evening was spent in playing Hallowe'en games and eating apples and doughnuts suspended from a string, and the spirit of fun prevailed. Mrs. Pickens served sweet cider, doughnuts, apples, nut fudge and marshmallows, when the boys went out tick-tacking to end the Hallowe'en properly. Those in the party were Byron and John Costello, Paul Miller, B. E. Condon, Forrest and Will Hutchison, James and Chilton Robinson, Norton Harrel, Toel Lorance, Paul and Vern Pickens.

MEANS MUCH TO ST. JOSEPH.

Finding of Oil or Gas Here Would Benefit Our Neighbor.

For a long time many Nodaway county people have believed that oil and gas really might be found there, and during the last few days this belief has taken a firm root. A few weeks ago the representative of an eastern syndicate appeared, and after a quiet investigation proceeded to get leases on as much land as possible. So far he has procured rights to about 25,000 acres, and hopes within a short time to swell this to 30,000 acres. In the meantime plans have been laid to begin the work of boring at once.

We hope the prospectors will find what they are after, and in paying quantities. Oil and gas in Nodaway county would mean practically as much to St. Joseph as it would to that community; but even if it didn't the prosperity of our neighbor would be as keenly to our liking as our own prosperity.—St. Joseph News-Press.

To Attend Renfro Funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ditto and Mrs. Ditto's sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Hiatt of Pickering, went to Hopkins Wednesday noon to attend the funeral services of Martin Renfro, who was accidentally killed while working in his cornfield Tuesday noon. Mr. Renfro is Mrs. Ditto's uncle.

Bought Present for Wife.

Robert Wallace, the oil prospect promoter in this city, bought a Kranich Bach piano player of the Field-Lippman Piano company Monday for Mrs. Wallace, which was sent to their home in Chelsea, Okla., Wednesday.

Have Guests From Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Edwards of Omaha arrived in Maryville Wednesday morning and are the guests of Mrs. Edwards' sisters, Mrs. L. P. Colvin, Mrs. L. E. Carpenter and Miss Morna Lahar.

Mrs. Edward Biggs and children, who have been visiting her father, Glover Kelley and family, went to Nebraska City, Neb., to make their home.

Ira O. Kelley of the Swinford Ridge neighborhood returned Monday night from South Dakota, where he has been for a few days visiting a brother.

B. R. Ruth, who has been clerking at the Anderson clothing store, has resigned his position and returned to his home at Oakland, Ia.

PLENTY OF GAME

QUAIL SEASON OPENED IN THIS STATE WEDNESDAY.

FINE SPORT FOR HUNTERS

Local Nimrods Getting Guns and Ammunition in Shape—Ozark Woods Full of Turkeys.

The quail season opened Wednesday, November 1st, and local nimrods are busy today brushing up their guns and replenishing their ammunition. Quail are reported to be more plentiful this year than for several years past. The weather last spring was warm and dry and eggs hatched well and the young birds suffered but little.

Squirrels and rabbits are also reported plentiful, and from down in the Ozarks comes the word that the woods are full of wild turkey. Duck hunters along the Missouri river have been having a world of sport recently.

The best duck hunting comes on the wane of a cold wave. While the weather is cold and stormy the ducks keep on the wing, night and day. But when it begins to turn warm the ducks hunt around for a pond, river or slough where there is plenty of lily root, or small fish, or, better still, a little wild rice, for food, and prepare to establish winter quarters. Here they will stay until the next cold snap swoops down on them and again sends them winging toward the warm southern bayous. Between these cold spells is the real hunter's paradise, for then the ducks do not fly far and can be relied upon to stay in certain localities most of the time.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.

John W. Haegan Died at St. Francis Hospital Tuesday Morning.

John W. Haegan, an old and honored resident of Maryville for forty years, died at Francis hospital Tuesday evening, where he had been taken from his home, north of the city, for special treatment several days previous to his death. He had been in ill health for several weeks, and his death was due to the general weakness of old age, as he had no disease.

The time for the funeral services have not yet been arranged, as a son from Montana will come, but cannot reach Maryville before some time Friday. It is probable that the services will be held Saturday morning. They will be held in St. Mary's church, conducted by Rev. Father Anselm.

Mr. Haegan was 84 years old the 2nd day of last June. He had been a resident of Nodaway county for over forty years and was counted among the county's successful and honored farmers. He is survived by four sons and four daughters: Henry Haegan of Omaha, Peter Haegan and John Haegan of Trenton, Neb.; Frank Haegan of Garfield, Mont.; Mrs. Nie Sturm, Mrs. Martin Gross and Miss Kate Haegan of Maryville, and Mrs. Albert Honey of Colorado Springs, Col.

EXTERMINATED 525 RATS.

Chillicothe Farmer Tests Theory of Rats Carrying Cholera.

Andrew Jackson Walker, a farmer living near Chillicothe, decided Tuesday to rid his farm of rats. Summoning his neighbors he started a crusade on the rodents, and during the day 525 rats were killed on the Walker premises. Dogs, and pitchforks and clubs were used. The dead rats were piled on a log heap with five hogs that had died from cholera and were cremated. It is thought that rats carry hog cholera just as they are supposed to spread Asiatic cholera, and the rat killing was to test the theory of the spread of the disease by rats.

PRESIDENT ON PARADE.

"I confess that I am not reconciled to the idea of a chief magistrate parading himself through the several states as an object of public gaze and in quest of an applause which, to be valuable, should be purely voluntary."

Thus wrote Thomas Jefferson. It is instructive and refreshing to turn back, now and then, to the teachings of the fathers of the republic. And in none of such teachings will be found more wisdom and inspiration than in some of the writings of Jefferson.

"The idea of a chief magistrate parading himself throughout the several states" originated early in our history.
But Mr. Jefferson's criticism represented well the popular sentiment on the subject down to later times.

Practical illustration of the idea has reached its climax in the case of Mr.
Taft.

He has been, and remains for several days more, "an object of public gaze and in quest of an applause which, to be valuable, should be purely voluntary." He has called out just such crowds as gather in the streets for "circus day" in a country town.

Everybody knows that his trip is in the nature of a politician's scheme for securing support. Meantime, the public business in the nation's capital is delayed, while no possible public benefit is secured as result of the president "parading himself throughout the several states."—Chicago Daily Journal.

PICK ODD NOOKS FOR NESTS

Swallows Are Cunning Builders But Sometimes Select Precarious Sites for Homes.

Swallows are diligent and cunning builders of nests, but they are not always wise in their choice of a locality. In proof of this a couple of birds last year chose a secluded corner among the rafters of my barn and managed to hatch and rear their young successfully.

This year a couple, probably the same, repaired the nest and laid their eggs. But one morning both birds were found lying dead on the floor, the windows having been closed and the door locked by a too careful servant.
A favorite place for a swallow to build its nest is the upper corner of a window.

This situation is to say the least precarious, as an energetic housemaid has merely unintentionally or otherwise to draw down the sash and the nest is at once in ruins. I remember once quite unintentionally acting the part of the energetic housemaid. I drew down the sash and managed just in time to save the structure from falling to pieces.

Supporting it with my hands, I told
one of my boys to bring his schoolbag, and having fastened it securely to the window, deposited therein the remains of the nest and the young family of birds.

The parents were shy at first, but on closer investigation, having satisfied themselves that their little ones were still alive, they accommodated themselves to the situation and brought up their family in the usual way, sending them at length into the world doubtless all the wiser for their nurture in this abode of learning. A similar misfortune happened this summer to a swallow's nest in the window of a cottage in the Cheviot hills.

This time the nest was almost totally destroyed, but help came from a probably overlooked quarter. The dismayed cries of the feathered builders attracted their companions, who flocked around in large number and rendered every assistance in repairing the damage.—The Scotsman.

BROWNING WAS NOT A SNOB

When a Cook Came to See Some Pictures He Offered Her
His Arm.

A trivial anecdote occurs to me which has nothing to do with the "Countesses" who were supposed to absorb Mr. Browning overmuch. It appeared that on one occasion Mr.
Browning's son had hired a room in a neighboring house in which to exhibit his pictures. In the temporary absence of the artist, Mr. Browning was doing the honors, the room being half filled with fashionable friends.
Mr. Browning was standing near the door when a visitor, unannounced, made her appearance; he immediately shook hands with the stranger, or tried to do so, when she exclaimed:
"Oh, I beg your pardon, sir, I'm the cook. Mr. Barrett asked me to come and see his pictures." "And I am very glad to see you," said Mr.
Browning, with ready courtesy. "Take my arm and I will show you around."

Days of My Life."

Crushed by a Caddie.

"It is not always safe to fish for compliments," says a Washington man, who travels quite a bit, "and I recently learned a lesson in this regard from a caddie attached to a golf club near this town.

"I was going round the links one afternoon and making a dreadful exhibition of myself. I did not, however, know that my caddie was fully aware of this, as he seemed so blissfully unconscious that anything was wrong. He was a nice, freckled little Irishman, and I took quite a fancy to him, especially as never a hint came from him that I was doing badly. At the end of the round, in the hope of a "jolly" from the lad, I ventured to observe:

"I've been traveling for the last two months, and am dreadfully out of practice. That's why I'm in such bad form today."

"To which the caddie calmly replied: "Oh, then ye've played before, sir!"

For Those Who Hear Not.

The haliboy had fairly split his throat shouting directions to deaf persons who had called to see Mr.
Schwartz. Mr. Schwartz lived in the fourth floor rear, right-hand apartment, through the long hall and up the back stairs. It took a good deal of shouting to make some folks understand that.

"I never saw so many deaf people in my life," said the boy. "What on earth are they all running up to Schwartz's for?"

"Mr. Schwartz has advertised a deaf man's phonograph for sale," said a neighbor. "He is very hard of hearing. The phonograph was made especially for him. It has an unusually loud tone. Nobody but the hard-of-hearing can live with such entertainment. Mr. Schwartz, to save trouble, has advertised for a deaf purchaser."

Her Mind Relieved.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs.
Forkins, "what is a jackpot?"
"Why—er—a jackpot is a general contribution for purposes of charitable ionation."

"Oh! Do you know I was afraid it saw something to do with the wickedness of politics!"

RECEIVERSHIP DENIED.

Judge Ellison Refused Application of Mrs. Bettie M. Payne.

Arguments on an application for receivership were heard by Judge Ellison Wednesday afternoon in the case of James B. Payne vs. Bettie M. Payne of Holt county. The matter has been in the courts for some time in one form or another. A suit was first brought for divorce by Mr. Payne against his wife, and some sort of a settlement was finally reached as to the division of the property, which included an option by the terms of which Payne was privileged to pay certain amounts in cash instead of property, within a limit of ten days.
A question was now arisen as to whether he neglected to avail himself of the option within the time, and an application has been filed for a receivership of all his property by Mrs. Payne.

Payne is a rich retired farmer of Holt county and is getting old. His wife was very much younger than himself, and their married life was short and turbulent. Mrs. Payne is represented by Attorney Frank Petree of Oregon and Mr. Payne is represented by R. B. Bridgemon of Oregon and Shinabargar, Blagg & Ellison of this city.

The court denied the application and refused to appoint a receiver.

Shipped Jersey Cattle.

Thomas Wiles made another shipment of Jersey cows to Dr. John Lomax of St. Joseph Wednesday. Dr.
Lomax has a fine farm west of St.

Mrs. Joseph McKnight and little daughter arrived in the city Tuesday to visit Mrs. Charles Baker, living north of the city.

John Ferritor returned to his home in Clyde Tuesday from a week's visit in this city with E. L. Ferritor and family.

Mrs. Frank McMacken of Burlington
 Junction was in the city shopping
Tuesday.

Mrs. Edward Forsyth went to St.

His Fiftieth Birthday.

Mrs. Alfred Allen, colored, entertained with a morning party Friday to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of her husband, at their home, on Grand avenue.
The hours were from 8:30 to 11:30.
Lunch was served at 10:30 o'clock.
The guests were Rev. and Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. John Gooden, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Page, Miss Abbie Arnold,
Mr. John McGeehee, Mr. Thomas Jackson, Miss Belle Palmer, Mr. Ozle Schoolen, Prof. A. A. Keene, Mr. Roland Johnson. Mr. Allen received quite a number of nice presents.

Installing a New Boiler.

A new 300 horsepower boiler is being installed in the Normal heating plant. The MacMahon company of Kansas City has the matter in charge, and the boiler is expected to be in operating condition in time for cold weather. It will be a companion to the one already in, it having been found that the one is not equal to the demands in severe weather.

Fined in Justice Court.

Samuel Phillips of Barnard was fined Monday in a justice court at Barnard on the charge of allowing infected hogs to run at large, and also for failure to dispose of the carcasses of dead hogs, as provided by law. The fine on the first charge was $10 and costs and on the second $1 and costs.

Showing Loyalty.

Of course, one rather admires the people who peek around the exchange editor's desk looking for the paper from the "old home town," but it strikes us that native loyalty would be better shown by sending a $1 bill to the editor in the old home town. He might be able to use it.—Kansas City

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are 50, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

Mrs. W. W. Groves of St. Paul, Miss., who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Lemon of East Jenkins street the past two weeks, left for her home Tuesday.

IT'S ALWAYS BAD.

The Best of Backs Are Bad When They Ache, and Maryville People Know It.

A bad back is always bad. Bad at night when bedtime comes. Just as bad in the morning. Ever try Doan's Kidney Pills for it? Know they cure backache—cure every kidney ill? If you don't, some Maryville people do.

Read a case of it: J. A. Murphy, East Fourth street, Maryville, Mo., says: "I suffered considerably from kidney and bladder trouble. In the morning upon arising my back was weak and stiff and there was a dull ache in my loins which at times handicapped me in doing my work. Whenever I caught cold it settled in my kidneys, and at such times the kidney secretions became unnatural. I was run down in health when I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply at Charles A. Love's drug store. Soon after beginning their use I found relief, and I am now free from kidney trouble. I occasionally take a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills, finding that they serve to keep my kidneys in a normal condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mrs. E. L. Ferritor and children went to Stanberry Tuesday to attend the funeral of the baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ferritor, a nephew of Mr. Ferritor.

KOCH PHARMACY

Guarantees Parisian Sage for Falling Hair and Dandruff.

We want you to know that the girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle and carton of Parisian Sage.

We want you to know this for your own protection, for there are many imitations, and it is an easy matter to get the spurious article.

You can always get the genuine Parisian Sage at the Koch Pharmacy for only 50 cents a bottle. They will not deceive you.

Parisian Sage is rigidly guaranteed for dandruff, falling hair and scalp itch.

It is a most delightful and invigorating hair dressing that puts life and brilliance into the hair and causes it to grow if the hair root be no dead.

It's the tonic you will use always if you use it once.

ASKS PERMIT FOR BIG NOTE ISSUE

Orient Railroad Applies to Kansas Utilities Commission.

FRENCH BANKERS TO TAKE ALL

Company Proposes to Issue $19,300,000 in Gold Notes to Be Used for Further Extensions, Largely in Mexico.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 1.—Permission to issue gold notes to the amount of 100,000,000 francs—equal to $19,300,000—has been asked of the Kansas utilities commission by the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railroad through the road's general attorney, John Eaton.

Arthur E. Stilwell of Kansas City, Mo., is president of the Orient.

The notes will be purchased by a syndicate of French bankers, negotiations having been completed by President Stilwell several months ago.

The notes, providing permission is granted, will be dated 1911 and at the end of 20 years—1931—will be convertible into stock in the railroad, according to the petition filed here.

The money to be obtained through the sale of the notes will be used in construction work, the larger part in Mexico.

The Orient now has a line in operation from Wichita, Kan., to San Angelo, Tex., a distance of 510 miles. The line from Wichita to Emporia is graded and part of the bridges are in place. From San Angelo southwest, the road has nearly been completed as far as Fort Stockton, Tex., the objective point being Topolebampo, in the state of Sinaloa, Mexico, on the Gulf of California. Between Fort Stockton and Topolebampo there is a line in operation from Chihuahua, 90 miles east and also a stretch of 73 miles from Topolebampo to Hornillos.

Another branch from San Angelo to Del Rio, Tex., is under construction. The ultimate terminal of this branch will be Mexico City.

The line from Kansas City to Emporia will be under construction soon. Immediately upon the filing of the petition the public utilities commission took it under advisement. The members said that, although the final decision would not be given for several days, the Orient undoubtedly would be granted the permit.

North Dakota Educators Convene.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 1.—Several hundred members of the North Dakota Educational association were present today when the twenty-fifth annual meeting opened in the Masonic temple. Mayor Lowell welcomed them cordially and Prof. J. E. Kennedy of the state university responded. President Neil C. Macdonald of Valley City then delivered his address, and Supt. W. E. Hoover of the Fargo schools followed with a paper on "Educational Progress of the Year." The section meetings began this morning with sessions of the departments of rural education, industrial education, history, civics and social science and musical education. Tonight Ernest Thompson-Seton will lecture.

New Barges Nearly Ready.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 1.—The first of six steel barges being built for use in the government improvement work on the Missouri river east of Kansas City is being completed at the levee here. Work on the others is proceeding rapidly and all the barges will be in service next spring. The barges probably will be ready to leave here before December 1.

Destruction of Rats.

An East Africa publication contains a description of a method of destroying rats, followed in Java, in which carbon bisulphide is employed. In carrying out the method a small quantity, usually about half a teaspoonful of the carbon bisulphide is poured into the rat hole and after waiting a few moments to let the liquid evaporate, the mixture of air and vapor is lighted, a small explosion resulting and filling the hole with poisonous gas, killing the rats instantly. Such a process practiced openly might be objectionable under some circumstances because of danger from fire resulting from the explosion and a field for invention appears to offer itself to provide some form of fire-proof gun or explosion chamber suitably formed to be inserted in the mouth of the rat hole and adapted to enclose the explosion and discharge the resulting noxious gas into the hole.—Scientific American.

REBELS RECAPTURE HANKOW

TWO IMPERIAL REGIMENTS SURRENDERED.

Manchu Rule in Ended, Even Though the Dynasty Survives—Rebels Distrust Throne.

San Francisco, Nov. 1.—A dispatch reporting the recapture of Hankow by the rebels has been received here from Shanghai by the Chinese Free Press.

According to the message the rebel army from Han Yen moved against the imperial forces and surrounded the city, forcing them to withdraw with the loss of two regiments which surrendered. Four field cannons were among the spoils of the fight.

Pekin, China, Nov. 1.—The state of terror which has taken possession of the entire imperial court was further shown by a long list of edicts supplementing former remarkable proclamation and offering further concessions of the most radical character.

The late edicts indicate that even though the dynasty survives, Manchu rule is at an end. The transfer even of the cabinet offices to native Chinese is ordered, and the throne swears that "hereafter Manchus and Chinese shall be regarded equally," meaning that the elaborate system of Manchu pensions which are now paid to practically every member of the race will be discontinued and the Manchus left to earn a living by their own enterprise.

The revolutionists are unimpressed by the flood of edicts from the emperor. They declare that the dynasty's surrender has come too late. Moreover, they do not trust the throne, regarding their present position as too strong for yielding to promises which they feel are insincere.

MORE RAILWAY MEN MAY STRIKE

Four Union Presidents Called to Chicago to Discuss Action Against Rock Island.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A call to the international presidents of the four other interested unions to meet in Chicago to discuss the advisability of a strike on the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific, was issued by James W. Kline, international president of the railway blacksmiths. The officials invited are J. A. Franklin of the boilermakers, Michael O'Sullivan of the sheet metal workers and Martin Ryan of the carmen, all of whom are in Kansas City, and James O'Connell of the machinists, now in Washington, D. C.

Officials of the Rock Island here denied that shopmen were taking a strike vote to force a wage increase. F. O. Melcher, vice president in charge of operation, said:

"We have been told indirectly that the men are taking a strike vote, but if that is true the question of wages is not involved."

Practically the only ungranted demand, he said, was for recognition of the system of federation, the lack of which caused the present strike of shopmen on the Harriman lines.

Rob a Hotel.

Jefferson City, Nov. 1.—Three masked men held up and robbed the saloon and hotel of James Ringo in the eastern suburbs of the city after shooting and wounding the proprietor and beating his clerk into insensibility with the butt of shotguns. The robbers obtained about $40.

Seven Deaths Bring Arrest.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 1.—Mrs. Louise Vermilya was arrested after the police found that the death of a policeman, a roomer at her home, was the seventh in recent years occurring under her roof. Mrs. Vermilya denies she is directly or indirectly responsible for any of the deaths.

Motor Regulations in Japan.

The regulations for motor traffic in Japan are neither long nor complicated. In case of a vehicle being in the street in an unsafe state it is the duty of the police to order it to stop or to allow it to proceed only after defects have been remedied.

Speed is limited to eight miles an hour, save in Yokohama, where the speed limit is six miles. Motors must not race. When cars meet they must slow down. When a motor meets a procession, a funeral or fire engines proceeding to a fire, it must pull up and take another route. Violation of these rules will be followed by fine or imprisonment. The regulations are not quite so Draconic as they appear, for the Japanese streets are very narrow and abound in picturesque and capricious turnings.

To Prolong Life of Needles.

The girl in a small apartment need no longer crowd her rooms with an ungainly sewing machine or else run up long seams by hand. There are fascinating handpower machines that fit into small boxes that can be put out of sight in a bureau drawer when not in use.

Keep on hand a supply of needles in all numbers, as it is most annoying when a needle breaks to have to send to the store before a seam can be finished. Needles can have their life prolonged by rubbing on a whetstone to a new point when blunted.

The finest needle can be easily threaded by holding a white paper on opposite side of the eye to make the hole more prominent.

Anchor

A STEADY purpose in this life is one of the best aids to success. If that purpose be the resolve to save money your success will be sure and satisfactory.

A young man should anchor himself to a bank account as the first step to success. As his account grows so will his confidence in himself to make good.

FOUR ARE HELD FOR A MURDER

Poison Found in Oklahoma Woman's Stomach Leads to Arrests.

HUSBAND CHARGED WITH ARSON

Burned His Home to Get Insurance and Dead Wife Was to be Material Witness for Prosecution.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Nov. 1.—As a result of the finding of traces of poison in the stomach of Mrs. Ollie Crockett at Nowata, Ok., Mrs. Dora Gaines, Miss Maud Warner and Orville and George Crockett are under arrest here in connection with the case. The woman's husband, Roy Crockett, recently was brought back to Nowata from New Mexico on a charge of arson. Mrs. Crockett was a material witness against him.

Mrs. Crockett died mysteriously after having spent the night before in a rooming house with Mrs. Gaines and Miss Warner. A chemical analysis of the dead woman's stomach by experts showed death undoubtedly was caused by morphine, which was present in a large quantity. It was known she was not addicted to the use of the drug. The authorities so far have been unable to find any drug store in the vicinity of Nowata where the poison was bought.

A preliminary hearing of all four under arrest is in progress.

The two men arrested are brothers of the dead woman's husband, and the women are close friends of his, but not relatives.

Crockett is charged with having burned his home near Nowata several weeks ago to get the insurance. He left the state immediately after the fire. The insurance policy was made out to his wife and the money paid over to her.

The prosecution considered her an important witness on that account.

CHICAGO ROBBERS UP TO DATE

Backed Up Motor Truck to Store and Talked to Officer While Helping Themselves.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—A motor truck has superceded the old-fashioned drays with which thieves used to haul away the loot of Chicago robberies. A modern pair of robbers backed a motor truck up to a building in the wholesale clothing district here and while the watchman passed them repeatedly visited the seventh floor and carried down silks valued at $1,500.

Chatting pleasantly with the policeman on the beat, the driver of the truck said the company was going to make deliveries at a suburb, which accounted for the early start. Neither policeman nor watchman suspected a robber until members of the firm arrived.

Boy Emperor Disappears.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 1.—The Chinese newspaper here received a dispatch from Peking stating that Lung Yu, the wife of the prince regent and mother of the boy emperor, had fled from the capital, taking with her the young emperor, Pu Wei, six years old, and that all trace of them had been lost. Prince Chun, made prince regent on the death of the dowager empress, Tsi An, and his brother, Kuang Hsu, the emperor, three years ago, still is in the capital.

Four Hurt in Wreck.

Atchison, Kan., Nov. 1.—Four men were injured when two extra work trains of the Missouri Pacific met head on near Nebraska City. The injured are Engineer George Mungler of Falls City, Engineer B. S. Cummings, Conductor A. P. Kimball of Atchison and Fireman John Niel of Auburn, Neb. All save Niel were brought to the hospital at Atchison. All will recover.

Rev. Richeson Indicted.

Boston, Nov. 1.—The Rev. C. V. T. Richeson, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, Cambridge, was indicted on five counts charging murder in the first degree by the grand jury here for the alleged poisoning of his former sweetheart, Miss Avis W. Linnell of Hyannis.

Held Police Force at Bay.

Bartlesville, Ok., Nov. 1.—Jim McCoy, a Cherokee Indian, held the whole police force at bay here while he drove into Butler's store to get a match. With his six-shooter leveled at the policemen he again held the crowd while he backed the buggy out of the place and drove away.

Aviator Fell at Salina.

Salina, Kan., Nov. 1.—Glenn Martin, the aviator, fell with his airplane 150 feet here. Martin jumped a short distance and was uninjured, but the machine, except the engine, was wrecked.

Texas Tornado Came Late.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 1.—The town of Thelma, 18 miles south of San Antonio, was damaged and two persons injured and crops were destroyed by a tornado.

TO ASK HELP IN DIVORCE CASES

Kansas Judges Favor Appointment of Special Examiners.

MAY ASK LEGISLATURE TO ACT

Suggest Law Providing for Special Attorney to Act in Cases Where the Evidence is Incomplete.

Topeka, Nov. 1.—Kansas attorneys and especially judges of the district courts are taking a great deal of interest in the plan suggested by Judge Seeborn in Kansas City to have an examining attorney appear for the state in every divorce proceeding. At the next meeting of the Kansas Bar association the proposition will be discussed. The association may ask the Kansas legislature to provide for an examination in all divorce cases before the trial is held.

Judge Thomas C. Wilson of the first division of the Sedgwick county district court, both judges of the two divisions of the court in Shawnee county, Judge J. C. Ruppenthal of Hays and several other judges have expressed the belief that divorces are often granted unfairly simply because of a lack of information on the part of the judge.

In the last few years there have been several divorce cases appealed to the supreme court because the judge of the lower court refused to grant a divorce because he did not feel that all the proper information was at hand when he was asked to grant the decree. There have been numerous cases recently wherein a husband has appealed his case to the supreme court because some advantage had been taken of him and he did not feel that he had been given a square deal and that justice had been done when the decree was granted.

The judges, who have written letters to the attorney general and members of the supreme court, say that it is not at all necessary to have an examination in every case but in the larger cities of the state they say that at every term there are from one to a dozen divorces which the judges feel really should not be granted but they have no information which would permit them to refuse the decree. Judge Wilson has often refused to grant divorces unless attorneys appeared for both sides. Sometimes this is not a necessary precaution, but often it is taken because there are some appearances of chicanery on the part of the applicant. The evil does not appear often except in the larger cities. The judges believe that they should be permitted to name a special attorney to investigate divorce cases where the evidence is incomplete and have this attorney make a thorough investigation before the decree is granted.

STUDENTS VISIT PENITENTIARY

Missouri Sociology Class Shown Mines and Federal Prison at Leavenworth.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 1.—Forty-four members of the sociology class of William Jewell college at Liberty, Mo., visited the Kansas penitentiary at Lansing, the Soldiers' home and Fort Leavenworth. It was their annual visit.

At Lansing the visitors were met by Warden Coddling and several guards and were escorted through the institution and the coal mines. Warden Coddling addressed the young men in his private office on subjects pertaining to criminology and sociology.

Leaving Lansing the party went to the Soldiers' Home and thence to Fort Leavenworth.

Citizens Freed a Prisoner.

Hobart, Ok., Nov. 1.—Trouble occurred at Mountain Park again when Joseph Hawkins, deputy sheriff, and Ray Clark, city marshal of Roosevelt, attempted to arrest Sam McNeal. McNeal was found in the rear of a store, where he was disarmed and handcuffed. Then armed citizens of Mountain Park forced the officers to free McNeal. He is implicated in the killing of Wyatt Staples when the Swanson county fight was at its height.

Flack Reward Posted.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 1.—The proclamation of the reward of $250 for John A. Flack which was issued by Gov. Stubbs confirmed the reports of two weeks ago, when the governor was asked if he would offer a reward. Men who believed they had him located asked for it. Flack absconded as cashier of the Abilene State Bank, wrecking the bank.

K. S. A. C. Student Wins Honor.

Manhattan, Kan., Nov. 1.—Karl Musser, a senior in the Kansas state agricultural college, won highest honors in Chicago in the judging of Holsteins in the National Dairy show. In winning the first place from contestants from ten or more agricultural colleges of this country and Canada, Musser received also a scholarship valued at $400.
